

More Than One Way to Slice It: Contributing to the Life of the Meeting

Submitted by the Nominating Committee

4/2/17

Nominating Committee hosted “A Slice of the Meeting” on April 2 for those wanting to learn about our Meeting’s committees and/or to eat pizza. Thank you to the committee conveners, the Slice organizers, Tim Field, and those who are discerning their committee leadings.

While Nominating Committee focuses on staffing the Meeting’s committees and officers, we are mindful that there are many other ways to contribute to the life of the Meeting. Here are a few of them (okay, more than a few):

- Sign up to host Hospitality
- Come to Meeting for Worship
- Come to Work Days (building and grounds)
- Embody the Quaker Testimonies
- Provide childcare
- Join a Dinners for Eight Circle
- Teach First Day School (and bring your children!)
- Show up for the Halloween Party, Carnival, Games Nights
- Participate in Ministry’s Adult Education classes
- Come to Meeting for Business
- Join interfaith groups in which PFM participates
- Join, or start, a Friendly Interest Group
- Bring food to potlucks
- Come out for peace and justice actions
- Come to Pamphlets and Pastries
- Write an article for our monthly newsletter
- Write letters to our elected officials once a month
- Help serve meals at the East End Cooperative Ministries
- Come to Fall Gathering
